

Innovation Management Summit

A highly interactive workshop on innovation management by and for senior executives, facilitated by Cordence Worldwide Innovation experts

March 13th, 2014
9.00 am till 12.30 pm plus lunch, The Hague

“What are the real key issues to be managed, to ensure innovation success? From searching for impactful concepts to the shortest time-to-profit. How do my fellow managers think about these issues?”

Work with a senior executive team on that elusive subject of good innovation management. Share insights with your peers; experience the power of rapid divergence and convergence, see how much can be achieved in half a day. Bring home a new network of fellow managers and the collective wisdom of that group.
